

Kingsport Area Christian Home Education Association (KACHEA) Release of Liability

1. I understand that participation in events, gatherings and sports-related activities (such as practices, games and necessary travel) come with inherent risks.
2. I understand that at this time, in particular, there are additional health concerns arising from COVID-19 and other various bacterias and viruses. I agree to ensure that myself and/or any participant I may bring or send to a KACHEA event or activity are symptom-free. Symptom-free is including, but not limited to, being free of fever and cough.
3. I signify by the signing of this release to not hold Kingsport Area Christian Home Education Association (KACHEA) or its leaders, coaches, board members or teachers liable for any illness or injury that may arise from participation in any KACHEA sponsored or KACHEA related event or activity.
4. This release of liability is to cover the participation of the below-named individual from this date forward.
5. As the participant (aged 18 or older) or the parent/legal guardian of the participant (aged 17 or younger), I am signing of my free will, certifying that I have the legal right to do so.
